Important Information About This Notice

What this letter proves. This Benefit Verification Letter (BVL) is an official record of the Social Security benefits being paid to the named beneficiary as of the date of issuance shown on page 1. It is widely accepted by lenders, landlords, government agencies, and other third parties as proof of income.

How to verify this document. Authenticity of any SSA Benefit Verification Letter may be confirmed by contacting the originating Program Service Center using the address printed on page 1, citing the Notice Type and Office Code shown at the top of the letter. Do not share the full Claim Number with unsolicited callers, even if the caller claims to be from this Administration.

If your circumstances change. Under 20 C.F.R. § 404.704 you are required to report any of the following within ten (10) days of the end of the month in which they occur: change of mailing address; change of direct deposit account; marriage, divorce, or annulment; return to work or substantial change in earnings; departure from the United States for more than thirty (30) days; or incarceration. Failure to report timely may result in an overpayment that you will be required to repay.

Privacy Act Statement

The Social Security Administration is authorized to collect the information used to issue this letter under sections 205 and 1631 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. §§ 405 and 1383). Providing this information is voluntary; however, failure to provide it may prevent the issuance of benefit verification. The information may be disclosed without your consent to other Federal, state, and local agencies as set out in the SSA System of Records Notice (60-0058), published in the Federal Register.

How to Contact Us

Written inquiries regarding this letter should be addressed to the Program Service Center identified on page 1. General inquiries about your benefits may also be made through your personal mySocial Security account at the SSA online services portal. If you require this document in an alternative format (Braille, large print, audio recording), please notify the issuing office.
